June 7, 1928.

Mr. J. B. Collier,
Donna, Texas.

Dear Bert:

The Penn Knitting Company, 8th & Columbia Avenue, Philadelphia, have written us to place them in touch with a crackerjack hosiery and Rayon silk underwear salesman, so I would suggest that you write them and use my name if you are interested. Their lines to go all of the big department stores; in fact all stores that have a fair grade of credit. I enclose one of their circulars. You wrote me sometime ago and you are doubtless interested still.

Our mill here only sells the jobbing trade, which is sold by Wright's Health Underwear Company, of New York City, and they keep the mill sold ahead three or four months all the while.

Durward is doing nicely as President of the Southern Manufacturing Company, Athens, Georgia. We employ about 650 to 700 people over at Athens.

With my usual kind regards, I beg to remain

Yours most cordially,
